

HST & Non-Profit Organizations

What You Need To Know To Make The Change

Thursday, April 22, 2010

9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

The Alliance for Arts and Culture

100- 938 Howe Street

The Workshop

The introduction of the HST on July 1 will have specific implications for non-profit organizations. This workshop will provide an introduction to the HST, an explanation of the transitional rules and details about registration requirements, remittance of taxes and filing returns.

There will also be information about exemptions, taxable supplies, the BC point of sale rebates and other implementation issues.

NOTE: This is a valuable workshop for administrators, marketing directors and box office managers.

Facilitators:

Darren Taylor is a senior manager with Grant Thornton LLP, a leading Canadian accounting and business advisory firm, providing audit, tax and advisory services to private and public organizations.

Cost:

$50 (+GST) for Alliance members, $75 (+GST) for non-members

Registration:

Advance registration and pre-payment are required for all Alliance workshops. We accept cash, VISA, MC, or cheque. Call our office at 604.681.3535 with a credit card number or drop by our office to register and make payment in person.

Cancellation:

We reserve the right to cancel workshops if registration is too low.

The Reviews:

"Very specific and detailed information, well presented."

"The facilitator's expertise was terrific."

"It was good to hear from other non-profits during the Q&A session."
